

Practical Economy

Baking powders made from alum or phosphate may be bought for a trifle less than Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, which is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes.

Alum powders are not only cheap, but they differ greatly in leavening power.

If a cheap baking powder is used for a fine cake and the cake turns out a failure there is a waste of costly materials worth more than a whole can of the cheap baking powder.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder produces the finest food, and its use, therefore, results in an actual saving.

MIDDLE WEST FAVORS WILSON, SAYS DOREMUS

Congressional Committee Chairman Says President Will Carry Mississippi Valley; Republicans Confident.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Washington, May 16.—Frank E. Doremus, member of congress from one of the Detroit (Mich.) districts, and chairman of the democratic congressional committee, is about as hard a man to get a word out of as the sphinx. But Mr. Doremus broke his policy of silence today severely in letting out a noise like the end of the campaign with all doubtful precincts tucked away in the victory column.

Mr. Doremus said: "All our reports show the president strong in every state. I think he will carry every state in the Mississippi valley."

"Does that include Minnesota?" I asked timidly, for I find that many people down here do not connect Minnesota with the Mississippi valley. "They think it is in Skagway or Omaha," Mr. Doremus was equal to the test. He knew Minnesota was in the valley, in fact that it started the valley and carried it on by its own unaided efforts for a distance of 200 miles, and he assured me that Wilson would carry all of those 200 miles.

I suggested to him that such a thing as Minnesota voting for a democratic president had not been heard of heretofore, that many Minnesotans believed it would take a constitutional amendment to make such an act legal, but he persisted that the reports were correct to the effect that Minnesota is for Wilson.

The cause of this anticipated revolution in Minnesota politics, Mr. Doremus finds, is the absence of preparedness sentiment in the state and the gratitude of the people for Wilson "keeping us out of the European war."

It is on Ford Vote.

As a member of the house, Mr. Doremus has had opportunity to study the moves of republican congressmen, and he is convinced by their votes on the army bill that the Mississippi valley constituents are not standing for a more complete preparedness than the democratic program provides.

If these congressmen have mistaken the sentiment of their constituents in this regard, then Mr. Doremus may have to revise his estimates of majorities in the valley. At the present time, however, there is no question; the democrats are banking on the Ford vote as a vote that will swing back to Wilson en bloc if the republicans at Chicago attempt to put over any such playful prank as calling upon the country to prepare for emergencies.

If this vote is properly gaged by the democrats, they have confidence that it will prove the decisive factor in such states as Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Woman Voter Likes Wilson.

This phenomenal popularity of the president, it must be said, is hard to find in the east. It certainly is not rampant in Washington. But then presidents, for some reason, are never popular here, probably because the people get too close to them and thus their halo suffers. But from other parts of the east come reports that the president is phenomenally popular. I give but one instance: "a lady" voter from California. She voted for Wilson in 1912 and, never having seen him, wished to gaze on her first president. She did and when she left the White House, after shaking hands with the president, said she liked him. She was glad she had voted for him and would do it again. But she was troubled about one thing, the perfect hatred of Wilson that she found in traveling through New England.

Depend on Republican Split.

Probably there is a true medium between these views. The president is not going to sweep the Mississippi valley against a candidate with the united republican party behind him. Everybody knows that. He is not going to fall down hard in the east, where the hatred works are located. But old time democrats are dismayed at the thought of the weakness of Wilson as a vote getter. They realize that in 1912, with a divided republican party and with the country grown immensely in population since the last election, when Bryan first began to run for president, Governor Wilson got only 200,000 more votes than Bryan received against Taft.

This, they confess, does not look encouraging in the face of a united opposition. They admit the president's chances this year depend much more on republican errors than on the strength of their party or their candidate. The party is a little stronger in some sections than the party, but since the war in Europe and the subsequent trouble over neutrality, he is in other sections, weaker than his party.

PRIMARIES IN PECOS VALLEY LEAVE INTENSE
BITTERNESS IN WAKE

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Roswell, N. M., May 16.—The last of the returns of the democratic primaries, held last Tuesday, reached here yesterday from Cap Rock, about fifty miles east. The return only added to the heat of the winning candidates and changed the result in no way. It did establish the nomination of Berryhill as county commissioner from the second district, giving him a lead of fifty-three votes over Evans L. Lusk.

There has been considerable criticism of the delays in the returns and intimations that it was done purposefully. There have been open charges that in some of the precincts unfair methods were used and while even if the facts were established there is nothing to be done about it, since the primary is not governed by law, it has added to the bitterness between the two factions of the party.

Time and fact may change the situation, it is believed, but if the election were to be held tomorrow, it seems probable that the democratic ticket would not receive nearly as many votes as were cast in the primary. Many lifelong democrats say they are disgusted with the way the party is run in the county and are secretly planning how they can bring about a change. On the other hand the other faction says this is merely the talk of poor losers and that when election time comes the disappointed ones will vote the straight ticket.

The conservative members of the party, not actively allied with either faction, believe that much depends upon the way the convention which is to be held next Thursday is conducted.
The progressives will have complete control and it is said that if they ruthlessly use steam roller methods it will mean the loss of many votes for the ticket this fall. If they use tact and appear willing to meet the other faction on a reasonable basis, it is thought that much of the ill feeling engendered by the bitter fight in the primaries can be wiped out.

HUSTLERS SELL LIGHT COMPANY AT CARRIZOZO

History of Development of White Oaks Property by Three Live Wires a Real Romance of Grit and Work.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL) Carrizozo, N. M., May 16.—After showing the people in its particular neighborhood and the country generally just what enterprise and push can do, if the accompanying hard work is thrown in, the Alto Light and Power company has disposed of its holdings in White Oaks, the transfer to be effective July 1. The holdings include the coal mine and the electric lighting system installed by this company. The consideration has not been given out.

A few years ago when the outlook in White Oaks was just a bit dreary, three hustling men took a lease on one of the Homestake mines. They knew the mining business, they knew how to work and they knew how to hustle.
They rolled up their sleeves and went to work. They worked live hewers, first lease and took over the other Homestake property, thus giving them control of two of the real mining claims in the White Oaks district.
More work and more hustle, and another winning stroke.

Cheap Power Furnished.

During the years they were taking the precious metal out of their lease-holds, they were figuring on helping the country by doing something big for the mines in other localities. They knew these mines were eating up their profits in operating expenses.
They got hold of a coal mine and began to figure in earnest on cheap power. This ambition was soon realized, and a few months ago they built a line to this city and gave its electric lights and electric power. At the same time they entered into an agreement with the Parsons people and at once began building a line to that point, where mines of no insignificant value waited just this thing to make them pay. With this expansion in business, the Alto Light and Power company was born. New and modern machinery has been purchased and installed, and at this time a 500 k. w. turbine engine is being placed in the plant. The company, it is known, has an ambition to extend the electric current which they manufactured within the sacred precincts of Heart's Desire to every part of the county, and it is safe to say they would have done so had they not listened to the proposition to sell—a proposition so alluring, evidently, that they could not resist.

The new company expects to continue the service the Alto people have been giving their patrons, so it is not surprising that the next few months will see Liberty county pretty well lighted from the coal fields of White Oaks.

ROSWELL SENDS TEN ADDITIONAL RECRUITS TO HOSPITAL CORPS

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Roswell, N. M., May 16.—A call came today for ten more members of the hospital corps to report to Columbus at once. They will leave tonight and with them will go four more recruits for Battery A. Three recruits left this morning for Columbus to join the battery. This leaves only six of the forty members of the local hospital corps who are not in the field and they are expecting a call at any time.

Roswell now has practically 200 men on the border and their loss is felt keenly in the business world.
They are men who hold important positions here and some of the business houses are somewhat crippled and many members of the battery are making big sacrifices. Many of them are farmers and stockmen and could leave home at no more inopportune time.

The local Red Cross society is conducting a membership campaign this week and expects to have more than a hundred new members enrolled by Thursday when a meeting will be held at the armory. At this meeting some action will be taken looking toward the assistance of families of Battery A members who are without means of support.

NEW POST TOASTIES are the first corn flakes with a self-developed flavour—the full, true flavour of choice white Indian Corn—unlike common "corn flakes" that depend largely on cream and sugar for their palatability.

Try a handful dry—this simple test will demonstrate the delicious new flavour.

NEW POST TOASTIES do not "chaff" or crumble in the package, and they
